Reference: Year End Report (11/24/98-12/31/98)

This memorandum is in response to your letter dated March 11, 1999 that noted contributions from a person in excess of the $5,000 limit set forth by law. Based on this concern, we reviewed our financial records noting we received $7,000 from a person during 1998, which exceeds the $5,000 limit by $2,000 dollars. As a result, we have transferred $2,000 from our federal account to our non-federal account. Our non-federal account is not used to influence federal elections. In addition, we notified the donor providing the option for receiving a refund. See attached copy of letter.

See attached copy of check representing transfer to our non-federal account.

If you require any further information, please contact me at (202) 785-9616 or write me at the address shown below.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Brunder,

Based on a review of our financial records, it has just been noted that we received $7,000 in donations from you during 1998, which exceeds the $5,000 per calendar year limit set forth by law. As a result, we immediately transferred the excess amount of $2,000 to an account that does not influence federal elections. However, if you prefer a refund of $2,000, please reply to the address shown below.

Thanks for supporting BAMPAC in a tremendous fashion.

If you require any further information, please contact me at (202) 785-9616 or write me at the address shown below.

Sincerely,

Alvin Williams, Executive Director
